

SPAA Emerging Producers Scheme

APPLICATION FORM

The Screen Producers Association of Australia, is once again offering Emerging Producers a subsidised opportunity to attend the annual SPAA Conference. The Emerging Producers Scheme assists the new and upcoming members of our industry to attend the most important conference for producers on the calendar. The SPAA Conference offers opportunities to build and develop business and creative contacts and an environment where producers can enjoy stimulating forums and social exchange with potential partners.

SUCCESSFUL EMERGING PRODUCERS WILL BE:

- Subsidised for half the basic registration fee
- Briefed on how best to 'work' the conference*
- Part of SPAA 2008 Emerging Producer events
- Encouraged to pitch a project

HOW TO APPLY

If you meet the Essential Criteria, please send completed form along with your CV to the address provided.

ESSENTIAL CRITERIA

- Applicants must be a SPAA Associate Member
- Applicants who have previously attended a SPAA Conference, either as a full registrant, an Emerging Producer or as a speaker are NOT eligible (applicants who have attended a SPAA Conference as a student may apply)
- Applicants must have at least one production credit
- Applicants must have a demonstrated interest in pursuing a career as a producer

Any applicant who has worked extensively as a producer or who has producing credits is NOT eligible (short films are an exception).
